at the 11° Congreso de Exploración y Desarrollo de Hidrocarburos, that will be held on November 8-11, 2022, the undersigned declares to be aware that his/her participation in it (whether as a speaker, exhibitor, panelist at round tables, etc.) contemplates conferring the following to the ARGENTINEAN OIL AND GAS INSTITUTE (IAPG):

1. My authorization to freely reproduce all the presented material, record my voice, text, and/or image, content and information prepared and presented by me, by any means (digital, graphic, sound reproduction, filming, video recording, etc.) and in the extension you consider necessary.
2. I authorize IAPG to distribute the Paper and the recorded video material mentioned above, in any number of copies required, its communication and promotion, including the availability to the public through the aforementioned means (printed, digital, electronic, Internet or any other means), free of charge.
3. This authorization is free of charge and I grant it for a period of 5 (five) years, automatically renewable for the same period, preserving the right to express, within a period of at least thirty calendar days prior to its expiration, its revocation by reliable communication and by a letter addressed to the IAPG authorities.
4. This is granted as a non-exclusive authorization and does not imply the transfer of my economic rights.
5. The rights to use, publish and republish the audio, text, still or moving images, in a whole or partially, separately, with any current or future tool, and for any purpose, including illustration, promotion, art, editorial activity, advertising and marketing, or any other purpose, without limitation.
6. Permission to use my name if IAPG so decides, in combination with this audio, still or moving images.
7. Releases of all claims and demands, including claims of slander, defamation, or invasion of privacy arising out of or in connection with the use of this audio, text, still or moving images.

In proof of conformity, I sign this agreement granting my express consent to what was stated above.
